

THE AFRICAN STUDIES GROUP OF THE AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURAL SOCIETY AND

THE CARIBBEAN AMERICAN CHILDREN'S FOUNDATION

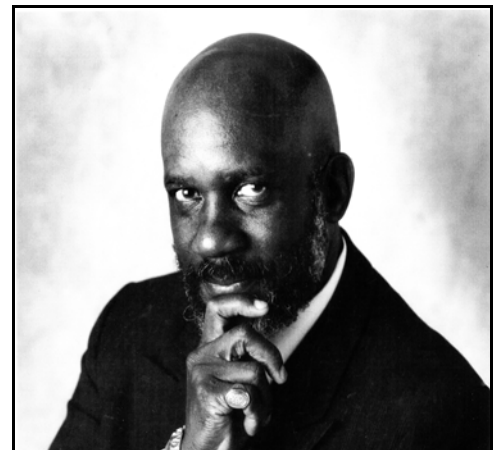

Present a Symposium: AFRICA'S GLOBAL EXPERIENCE

When: Saturday, February 10, 2007, 10:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.
Where: Florida Hospital, Education Center (Main Entrance)
60 Memorial Parkway, Palm Coast, Florida (I-95 exit 284, go west on SR 100)
Contact: Alberto, 386 446-4921 or 386 793-5887

Lennox S. Hinds is a Professor of Law and former Chair of the Administration of Justice Program, Rutgers University. He was a Charles H. Revson Fellow, Center for Legal Education and Urban Policy, City College of New York.

He is a criminal defense and international human rights lawyer, Nelson Mandela's US attorney, counsel in the US to the Government of South Africa, the ANC and Namibia. He is the Vice President and Permanent Representative to the United Nations for the International Association of Democratic Lawyers. He served for many years as Director of the National Conference of Black Lawyers of the US and Canada.

Mr. Hinds has traveled, written, and lectured extensively in Africa, Europe, Asia and North America on international human rights issues and racism. Most recently he has been appointed by the UN as lead counsel of defendants accused by the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda. He also assisted in drafting the Luanda Convention on Mercenaries in Angola in 1976.

Lennox S. Hinds, J.D.
Keynote Speaker

Mr. Hinds will discuss Cuba's contribution to the independence of Southern Africa.

THE PANEL

Dr. Susan Greenbaum (USF) - "Role of Tampa's Afro-Cuban community in the war of 1895."
Maura Barrios, MA - (West Tampa Council on Arts, Cultures, History) - "Jose Marti meets Jim Crow."
Dr. Raphael Jackson (BBC) - "Philip Emeagwali: Nigerian genius behind the supercomputer."
Dr. Alberto Jones (CACF) - "The impact of Blacks in the making of the Cuban nation" *

ADMISSION FREE - DONATIONS ENCOURAGED

*Power Point Presentation prepared by the St. Augustine-Baracoa Friendship Association.