

CubaNews

a free e-mail service through Yahoo

In 1959, Cuba kicked out the U.S.-backed dictator, Fulgencio Batista, who had ruled the island in one way or another since 1934, and began building a more just and democratic society. Cuba's struggle to defend its sovereignty continues today as it fights to maintain such social gains as free education and health care in the face of Washington's hostility.

CubaNews list provides a broad selection from the mainstream, Cuban and left and alternative media to look at the island, its relations with the US, issues in the Cuban diaspora and struggles related to Cuba.

With rare exceptions, the mainstream media ignores Cuba or writes about it in hostile and distorted ways, when it covers the island at all. CubaNews brings you the latest news and information about Cuba in an easy-to-use e-mail format. Available in individual mail, or a daily digest. It also features a search engine of news on Cuba since 2000.

CubaNews list provides complete texts of important Cuban documents, including Fidel Castro's speeches, and informed commentaries to help readers to understand and explain the Cuban Revolution.
